The parties are Germans. Defendant keeps a greeny store is Elizabeth-at, and plaintiff was employed as his clerk. Plaintiff alleges that defendant, with males and a view to higher him, uttered the following words in the German language, in the presence of divers persons, viz. "Hais Martens smare, in the presence of divers persons, viz." Hais Martens smare, in the presence of divers persons, viz. "Hais Martens who was with me as clerk, cheated me; he "stole $500 from me."

It is also said he made nearly similar declarations at other persons. Plaintiff and that in consequence of these standers the was prevented from obtaining employment; that Mr. Thomas Sects of James st, would have given him a sinaviou, but on some person telting him of what had been said by Mr. Kothe, he declined employing him; and plaintiff has been prevented by the slander, otherwise, from getting hasiness. He brings action to recover damages smann laids a 90.

The Court, in 's charge, said that a person making use of language as regards another, accusing him of something which would among to more! terprised, or solveet him to initionant, he is liable to respond in damages, if the words were not true, without the seconed party being required to show that he had assistanted any special damage from the stander, and that in all other cases where a statement is made against a party, by which he considers that he is injured he has right to bring suit for slinder, but in order to recover, must show special damage. In singler, but in order to recover, must show special damage. In this case, the July must consider, from the evidence, what is the real meaning of the word betrogen. If it means embezade, or steal, the Liaintiff cast suntain his action without showing damage. If it means "cheat," then, is order to sustain the action, he must show that he has been specially injured by the accession before be can recover, the word chest not coming within the first-mentioned rule- as in the heet of conversation a person may often unthinkingly say of another that he cheats in driving a hard hargain—or similar words need to a similar way. If the defendant appeal that plaintiff had be en unfaithful in his has ness he would have a right to speak, if in truth, in regard to it. As to Mr. Scott, special deraye can only be shown by proof that his declining to employ plaintiff was on account of herring these words. The Jury save a verillet for defendant. For plaintiff Mr. J. There was a fair amount of business done at the Stock Board this morning, with generally a better feeling than prevailed earlier in the week. Stocks are carried with less difficulty, and this has given opsrators for a rise some confidence. The bears, however, are still free sellers, although not to the extent of last week. At the Second Board the market was ess firm, and after the Second Board Erie and Cumbeiland were very beavy. The principal movement to-day was in Reading, of which 5,000 shares were sold, closing at 931, the price of yesterday. The next dividend talked of is 10 $\psi$ cent, part stock and part cash, and there is an estimate in the street we know not wi h how much authenticity showing a surplus of about $925,000 after the payment of fourteen P cent dividend for the year. Inside there was not a very large activity and the market was very firm until the close, when some sales were made at 542 @ 544. Hudson River under the decreased earnings of September fell off to 377, a fall of I per cent. In Central there were some transactions at 942 295. It was offered at the close at 943. In

Western shares the business was not large excepting in Cleveland and Toledo, which closed at 811-the price of yesterday. Galena and Chicago sold at 117, an improvement of | $\psi$ cent.; Michigan Southern sold at 98\psi$, buyer 60; Chicago and Rock Island improved to 94. Cumberland was 261 @ 261. In Railread Bonds the transactions were quite moderate and prices were steady. The sales of State Stocks were large, some $150,000, and the market is better. Included in the sales are $78,000 Missouri at 91 2913, showing an improvement. Indiana 5s sold at 82, and

Bore down to her gain found her to be the English hast Montely, of Frince Edwards Islands, from Shedice, bd. to Liverpoot, loaded with lamber and water-orged, with her bow port out. The captain and crew requested to be taken off the bark. After gatting the captain ard crew on board, I, with six of the John Fraser's crew, had our clothes pecked to take charges of her, but to our surprise the carpetier of the Montely had their boat cast admit, which was fast to our stern, to prevent us from soing on board of the Montely. I was on board of the bark mysesf, and found that even the helm was not laisted, and made it fast myself. She was a new vessel, of about 500 or 500 tuns, just off the stock. I felt most certain I could have reached a port. The next day we put the captain and crew on board the bark Tuscarors, of Yarmouth, from Glasgow, bound to Quebec. We left the bark without taking anything from her, though it was fine weather at the time. Whalers.
